The Dental Care Plus Group Promotes Tom Koch to Chief Information and Technology Officer

(Cincinnati, Ohio, November 30, 2016) – The Dental Care Plus Group (DCPG), a leading provider of dental insurance, announces the promotion of Tom Koch to chief information and technology officer.

As chief information and technology officer, Koch will expand upon his current role of directing the efforts of the IT team towards accomplishing company growth and goal initiatives. He will also implement strategic goals related to IT and ensure that all systems support current DCPG operations and objectives.

“During Tom’s time with DCPG, he has demonstrated consistent improvements in our development capabilities, infrastructure and information management”, said Anthony A. Cook, President and CEO of DCPG. “He has brought a new level of project management to DCPG’s organizational project development.”

Koch joined DCPG in 2014 as director of information technologies. Prior to joining DCPG, he served as vice president of information technologies for EyeMed Vision Care Systems.

Koch graduated from The Ohio State University where he received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree in computer science. He currently resides in West Chester, Ohio.
